Week 1: Research the traditional clothes from your country. What do girls/boys wear? What do the adults wear? Do they wear certain clothes for special occasions? What materials do they use? What patterns do they use?

Week 2: Research traditional food from your country. Do they have different food for special occasions? What carbohydrates/proteins and sugars/fats do they eat? What dessert is famous in your country?

Week 3: Research famous landmarks from your country. What cities are they in? Can you describe a famous landmark using adjectives, adverbs and similes? Collect all of your information and put it together into a beautifully, decorated booklet. Remember to add pictures and to have a front cover.

Key Question:

What continent is your country in? What is the most famous landmark and why? What is the most famous traditional dish in your country?

Anna Hibiscus by Atinuke

Anna Hibiscus lives in Africa. Amazing Africa. She lives in an old white house with balconies and secret staircases. A wonderful house in a beautiful garden inside a big compound. The trees are full of sweet ripe fruit and the flowers are full of sweet juicy nectar because this is Africa, and Africa can be like this. Outside the compound is the city. An amazing city of lagoons and bridges and roads, of skyscrapers and shanty towns.

Anna Hibiscus lives with her mother, who is from Canada; her father, who is from Africa; her grandmother and her grandfather; her aunties and her uncles; lots and lots of cousins; and her twin baby brothers, Double and Trouble.

There are so many people in Anna's family that even she cannot count them all.

Anna Hibiscus is never lonely. There are always cousins to play and fight with; uncles and aunties are always laughing and shouting; and her mother or father and grandmother and grandfather are always around.

To be alone in Anna Hibiscus' house you have to hide. Sometimes Anna squeezes into some cool, dusty, forgotten place and waits for that exciting moment when her family begins to call- and then a cousin or uncle finds her and her aunties thank God!
